This responds to your request for materials that might be helpful in preparation of your remarks to ANPA.

Included is a comparison of total exemption and the Chafee Amendment and the pros and cons of each. The "staff position" represents our thinking drawn from sources inside and outside the Agency. It, of course, does not represent Agency policy and is included here because you asked for "a range of thinking," and is for your information only. Also included are the two bills, various papers that were drawn together for discussions with ANPA when they visited the building, and your testimony on FOIA before the Congress.

Hope this is helpful.
